

I listen to an FM translator station, K-Love, in my area that I feel is very beneficial to the community. I appreciate listening to a station that does not carry commercials or offensive content. I feel that it is very important for my community to have this service continue and not be replaced by Low Power FM.